WHY SKIMS

SKIMS is a good fit for adaptive design because the brand focuses on comfort, inclusivity, and creating clothing that fits a wide range of body types. The company's mission of designing products for diverse consumers aligns with adaptive fashion, which aims to make clothing more accessible and functional for people with disabilities. SKIMS already emphasizes stretch, ease of wear, and body-positive design, making it a strong foundation for adaptive apparel.

COLLECTION MISSION

This collection reimagines everyday essentials through thoughtful design that promotes confidence, independence, and self-expression. By blending fashion and function, the collection ensures that individuals of all abilities can enjoy stylish, modern apparel without compromising their personal style.
